Subject: Revised Policy guidelines under Dual System of Training-regarding
Reference: This office letter of even number dated 27th May, 2019

Sir/Madam,

Your kind attention is invited to the subject matter under reference above (copy attached); wherein you were requested to revise all the earlier existing MoUs, in accordance with the latest and revised Dual System of Training (DST) guidelines.

In this regard, it is to inform you that, in supersession to the above reference, the following decision has been taken by the competent authority in the matter:

For all the MoUs signed between Industry and ITI under DST which are existing and live:

- There is no need for revision of MoUs except for an amendment to incorporate clause 13 of the revised DST guidelines.
- ITI and Industry to mutually decide and agree for any other amendment as per the revised DST Guidelines.

However All such amendments are to be appended with these existing MoUs. In view of above, it is to reiterate that all the existing and live MoUs under DST are valid for the revised DST policy guidelines also, except for NAPS benefits which is not applicable from the ensuing academic session, i.e. from the 2019-20 session since the revised guidelines have been delinked from NAPS.

Yours sincerely

Subject: Revised Policy guidelines under Dual System of Training-regarding

Sir/Madam,

Please refer to this Directorate letter number MSDE-19/02/2018-CD dated 26 Feb 2019 regarding issue of revised guidelines under the Dual System of Training covering all the CTS trades.

In this regard, the revised Policy Guidelines under DST, were released on 8th January 2019 and a number of criteria have been relaxed such as eligibility criteria of Industry, its turnover, min. no of employees etc. while providing adequate flexibility in the duration of training. Further the revised guidelines have been delinked from NAPS.

In view of above, it is to inform that from the ensuing academic session, the old MoUs signed between ITIs/ States and Industry/organizations stand cancelled. For the new admissions under DST in the 2019-20 session, the revised DST guidelines shall be applicable.

You are therefore requested to ensure that all the existing MoUs are revised and admissions in the coming session to be made in accordance with the latest DST Guidelines. The revised guidelines are available on NCVT MIS Portal and DGT website at link <https://ncvtmis.gov.in/pages/home.aspx> & https://dgt.gov.in/Dual_System respectively.

Yours sincerely
