To,

1. All State Directorates / UT Administrations dealing with Craftsmen Training
2. All Regional Directorates of Skill Development & Entrepreneurship

Subject: Security arrangements at the Computer Based Tests (CBT) examination venue- reg.

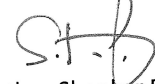

Sir,

Matters related to misbehaviour with the persons deployed to conduct the CBT examinations has been reported from Jalgaon in Maharashtra. Some incidences have also been reported from Haridwar, Uttarakhand. Also attempts for malpractices are reported from different centres at many locations.

2. Serious concerns has been raised by the technology agency in this regard and the Directorate General of Training, Ministry of Skill Development & Entrepreneurship has viewed such incidences very seriously.

3. In view of the above, all the State Directorates are requested to make suitable security arrangements with local administration to upkeep the safety and security of the personnel and the equipment involved in the examination process. Also, suitable deployment of observers and flying squads be made to prevent cases of malpractices. DGT may also initiate suitable actions including cancellation of examinations at such centres.

Yours sincerely,

(Sathya Shankar B.P.)
